

AADA 2008-2009 Aboriginal Arts Development Awards
 Recipient for Aboriginal Arts Administrator and Cultural Manager Internships Program

CITY	PROJECT BRIEF	Grant Amount	INTERN NAME	PLACEMENT or HOST ORGANIZATION
Skidegate	Jason Alsop, a Haida arts administrator currently working at the Haida Heritage Centre at Kaay Linagaay will be mentored by Mike Robinson, Executive Director of the Bill Reid Gallery. Activities will focus on development of a policies and procedures manual, job shadowing, networking, and strategic planning.	$ 22,500.00	Alsop, Jason	Haida Heritage Centre at Kaay Linagaay
Sooke	Linda Bristol will engage in an internship focused on delivery of community arts workshops, while being guided by mentor, Lou-ann Neel who will provide information, readings and examples of best practices.	$ 25,000.00	Linda Bristol	T'Sou-ke First Nation
Vancouver	Emerging arts administrators Shadae Johnson and Skeena Reece will engage in a layered internship that includes the mentorship of Dana Claxton, as well as job shadowing other professionals, research and workshops. One of the outputs of the internship will be the compilation of a basic handbook for emerging administrators.	$ 29,436.00	Skeena Reece and Shadae Johnson	Visible Arts Society (The)/grunt Gallery
Prince Rupert	Joanne Finlay will engage in an internship through Salmonberry Trading Company Society. Activities will include the provision of support to local artists, advocacy to ensure FN artists are represented in Prince Rupert. Through a focused mentorship the intern will also be guided in the development and mounting of an exhibition of three artists.	$ 25,000.00	Joanne Finlay	Salmonberry Trading Co. Society